Emory Grimes of Sellersburg, IN will be directing our hearts in praise to our Lord with Barton W. Stone and Thomas Adams' song, Come, My Christian Friends and Brethren as the theme song for Senior Citizens' Week.

Emory was born in Louisville, KY, attended Dupont Manual High School and Univ. of Louisville, earning his Mechanical Engineering Degree, and worked in the secular world in this profession for forty years before retiring.

He and his family have attended Sellersburg and Hamburg Churches of Christ in Sellersburg. Nathan and Steve Grimes are his sons born to his union with Faith Grimes. After Faith's passing, Emory and Marcella Smith married bringing Tim and Jim Smith to the family. Emory and Marcella have appreciated extensive traveling, enjoying God's great creation.

Serving on the boards of Words of Life Ministries (41 yrs.) and Portland Christian School (31 yrs.), along with eldership and teaching at church have been passions in his ministry of service to his Lord.

Come let us praise God together in song at Woodland. David wrote in Psalms 40:3 "He put a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God." Come, My Christian Friends and Brethren.

Orell Dwight Overman was born March 6, 1917 in a one-room log cabin near Bloomfield, IN, the fifth of six children to William Grant and Artiamacia Whitworth Overman. His schooling consisted of grade school and high school, plus five courses at Southern Baptist Seminary, Louisville, KY and five years personal study under R.H. Boll at Portland Church in Louisville, KY.

Frances E. Deckard became Orell's wife June 7, 1940 and together they were parents of five children, all of whom are active in church work.

Being a much sought-after Evangelist, Orell's ministry took him to many states holding 228 revival meetings throughout Central and Southern States. Churches served part-time include Highway Church, Pekin, IN, Ellis Church, Dugger, IN, and East Jackson Church in Sullivan, IN. Full-time churches served include Highview Church, Louisville, KY, Melrose Church, Lexington, KY, Mackville Ky Church, Pleasant Grove Church, Lyons, IN and Jasonville, IN Church.

A relaxing (?) passion in Orell's servitude to his Lord has been involvement with Woodland Bible Camp, being President of the Board of Directors for 40 years. What better reason could there be than to have Orell bring our opening message Monday Evening as he shares the work of the Holy Spirit to lead us with Encouraging Words for Discouraging Times.
