Special Prayer: Please keep Bro. Nick in your prayers. He had surgery last Friday and is recuperating. Let's pray that this surgery will alleviate the pain he has had in the last few years.

Living For The Lord in the Here and Now!

Although we should be longing for the day when the Lord will call us home, we must enjoy what He has for us NOW! Christianity is a here and now religion. Jesus said that He wants us to have an abundant life in HIM. In the last part of Tit. 2:12 He tells us to "live soberly, righteously and godly in THIS PRESENT AGE."

We are to live in the world but not of the world (1 John 2:15-17). Christians are to live in this world" but not like it or for it. We must never be conformed to this world (Romans 12:1-2) We need to have a mind renewal in the midst of a mindless society.

Christians must not only renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, they must replace these with positive characteristics. To fight against lust, we must say no to temptation and always say yes to service for Christ.

Remember, "Greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world." The power to live the Christian life come from the Holy Spirit.

Messages From God's Word

Sunday AM "Dare to be Hurt - Dare to Forgive." Mt. 18:21-35.

Sunday PM Short Devotional David Longest

Our speaker this morning is Bro. Paul Denny. He is the Executive Director of King's Field Children's Home (formally Maple Manor).

Matthew 18:21-35

Then Peter came up and said to him, "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times?" Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven. "Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants. When he began to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. And since he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.' And out of pity for him, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt. But when that same servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii and seizing him, he began to choke him, saying, 'Pay what you owe.' So his fellow servant fell down and pleaded with him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.' He refused and went and put him in prison until he should pay the debt. When his fellow servants saw what had taken place, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their master all that had taken place. Then his master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you?' And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt. So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart."
