Registry locations and/or gift ideas for the couple will be provided at a later date.

Message From Bennie Hill

To my church family at Cherry St. "Thanks for having me to speak at this year's Homecoming! I can't begin to tell you what a blessing it was for me, Adele, Sherry, and our 3 granddaughters to be with you this past week. Your hospitality was simply overwhelming as we felt the love manifested in so many ways to our family. The Cherry St. ladies are second to none when it comes to providing the meal. Of course, it has been that way ever since I became a member 6/29/1956 when Bro. Bruce baptized me. We deeply appreciated the love gift which was way to much for this "home-grown" boy from Indiana. I'll always remember my roots and thank God daily for my rich heritage." In Christian love, Bennie

Samaritan's Purse Shoe Boxes

Please remember that we are collecting items for the Christmas shoe boxes that will be distributed to children all over the world by Samaritan's Purse. A sheet with gift ideas will be available soon; however, monetary donations will be accepted as well for the purchase of items. The boxes will be assembled on November 14, 2009. Please see Sister Roxanne Meyer to answer any questions or to donate.

Great News: My Aunt, Laverne Collins, is coming home from the Nursing Home/Re-hab today—She has been there about 100 days. Thanks to all who have kept her in their prayers. I will not be there this morning as we (my cousin & his wife) have to be out there at about 11:15 a.m.
