Frog Legs, Anyone?

Have you heard the story of the farmer who asked the owner of a restaurant if he could use a million frog legs? The owner asked where he could find so many frogs. "I have a pond just full of them," said the farmer. "Their continual croaking, day and night, has nearly driven me crazy." So the owner and the farmer make an agreement for several hundred frogs, and the farmer went back home to gather up his frogs.

About a week later, the farmer came back with two scrawny frogs and an embarrassed look on his face. "I guess I was wrong," he stammered. "There were just two frogs in that pond, but they sure were making a lot of noise."

Does that not sound familiar? Have you ever heard of this happening in the local church? The next time you hear a lot of noise concerning how bad things are at your local congregation, just remember it may be nothing more than a couple people who have little to do but complain. –Steve Higginbotham, via MercEmail

Messages from God's Word

- A.M. "Beautiful Sarah" Hebrews 11:11-14 & 1 Peter 3:1-6
- P.M. 4th Sunday Song Service

Hebrews 11:11-14

It was by faith that even Sarah was able to have a child, though she was barren and was too old. She believed that God would keep his promise. And so a whole nation came from this one man who was as good as dead—a nation with so many people that, like the stars in the sky and the sand on the seashore, there is no way to count them. All these people died still believing what God had promised them. They did not receive what was promised, but they saw it all from a distance and welcomed it. They agreed that they were foreigners and nomads here on earth. Obviously people who say such things are looking forward to a country they can call their own.

I Peter 3:1-6

In the same way, you wives must accept the authority of your husbands. Then, even if some refuse to obey the Good News, your godly lives will speak to them without any words. They will be won over by observing your pure and reverent lives. Don't be concerned about the outward beauty of fancy hairstyles, expensive jewelry, or beautiful clothes. ⁴You should clothe yourselves instead with the beauty that comes from within, the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is so precious to God. This is how the holy women of old made themselves beautiful. They trusted God and accepted the authority of their husbands. For instance, Sarah obeyed her husband, Abraham, and called him her master. You are her daughters when you do what is right without fear of what your husbands might do.
